

I am very dismayed by comments made by Bob and Madison from G105 regarding encouraging motorists to assault bicyclists. We are serious cyclists and it is difficult enough riding on congested roads with minimal shoulders without worrying about drivers who are being encouraged to run you off the road or worse. Far too many cyclists are killed or injured each year in collisions with automobiles. This type of irresponsible behaviour should not be allowed on public airwaves.

Thank you.